What is the EM SSAB?

- Chartered in 1994 under FACA to involve local citizens more directly in DOE EM cleanup decisions
- There is one charter for the EM SSAB – currently eight local boards organized under the EM SSAB umbrella charter
- These eight local boards are brought together routinely at the EM SSAB Chairs meetings, where the EM SSAB is able to speak in one voice
- Made up of representative members, not necessarily experts
- Focus on stakeholder values
- DOE receives independent input and focus on transparency to build trust
Purpose of FACA

- Ensure that advice by advisory boards/committees is objective and accessible to the public
- Formalize process for establishing, operating, overseeing and terminating advisory boards
- Create the Committee Management Secretariat
- Require that boards advise and recommend, not decide and implement

Benefits of FACA

- Transparency and participation improves citizens' trust in government
- FACA requirements lend credibility to the boards’ advice
• ~1,000 federal advisory committees in existence at any time.
• ~65,000 committee and subcommittee members at any time.
• ~60 executive departments and agencies that sponsor committees each year.
• ~1,000 reports issued each year.
• ~7,000 meetings held each year.

At the request of the Assistant Secretary or the Field Managers, the Board may provide advice and recommendations concerning the following EM site-specific issues:

- Clean-up Standards and Environmental Restoration
- Waste Management and Disposition
- Stabilization and Disposition of Non-Stockpile Nuclear Materials

DOE Responsibilities under FACA

• Ensure compliance with FACA, regulations, DOE Guidance, and all related agency policies
• Approve agendas for each Board meeting
• Call, attend, and adjourn every Board meeting
• Maintain required committee records (e.g., costs, minutes, membership)
• Prepare Federal Register notices
• Prepare annual report to the CMO summarizing Board activities
• Nominate members for appointment
• Ensure all ethical standards are met by Board members
• Ensure that meetings are held at a reasonable time and place, accessible to the public
Member Responsibilities

• Attend regular meetings and learn about the site’s EM cleanup mission
• Provide recommendations at the request of EM management
• Work collaboratively and respectfully with other Board members
• Avoid techniques such as “bargaining” and acquiescence simply to avoid conflict and reach agreement
• Avoid responding directly to public comments
• Don’t use your title or represent the board outside of a meeting
• Report if an outside entity is attempting to influence your decisions
• Focus on the Board’s mission – collaboratively establishing a work plan
• Notify the DDFO of any potential or perceived conflict of interest
EM SSAB members are not subject to the same federal ethics regulations as federal employees and Special Government Employees (SGEs).

- As a matter of policy, however, DOE asks that you:
  - Refrain from any use of your membership, which is, or gives the appearance of being, motivated by the desire for private, professional, or financial gain;
  - Recuse yourself from decisions and discussions related to real or perceived conflicts of interest, act impartially, and avoid the appearance of impropriety; and
  - Seek immediate guidance, beginning with the DDFO, if you are offered anything of value such as a gift, gratuity, loan, or favor in connection with advisory board service.
“The success [of an advisory committee] is linked to a precise, unambiguous knowledge of objectives and purpose of the particular committee (i.e., knowing exactly what needs to be accomplished and how to accomplish it)...and is judged in terms of contributions toward decision making.”
